

International Youth Math Challenge

Participation Certificate

presented to

Md. Shakil Hossain

Bangladesh

for participating in the pre-final round of 2020. The International Youth Math Challenge is an independent international mathematics competition for talented high school and university students with the aim to encourage young students to engage in a variety of mathematical areas.

Fabian Schneider, International Coordinator

Rami Aly, Public Relations Manager